FILM FESTIVAL

2011 PROGRAMME

WELCOME TO THE SIXTH ANNUAL SHOW ME SHORTS FILM FESTIVAL

Show Me Shorts is going from strength to strength. Our number of cinema locations is growing steadily, and in November 2011 we arrive in more locations than ever. A warm welcome to the people of Kaikoura and Taumarunui who increase our number of cinema locations to 12, and to everyone else, welcome back!

In response to audience demand, this year for the first time we include a selection of the best international short films for your viewing pleasure. Films from France, Ireland, Germany, South Africa and the USA complement our selection of the top films from New Zealand and Australia. You will find these films scattered throughout the themed sessions detailed in this brochure, of which there are now seven in order to accommodate the extra films.

The 2011 session theme titles are: Unexpected Adventure, Master Chef, Love You to Death, Extreme Measures, Small Pleasures, Unlikely Bedfellows and Hitting the Road. A common thread this year is the exploration into decadence and pleasure, particularly of the gourmet variety.

Attending one of our sessions delivers a package of about seven short films tied together by a common theme. The sessions run for around 80 minutes each, and the average length of the films is about 11 minutes.

If you live in Auckland or Wellington you can attend the Opening Night events (page 23) to see all the award winning films as they are announced. If you're new to Show Me Shorts or have trouble deciding which session looks the most tempting, you will find this a great way of sampling the festival. In some of our locations, a package of highlight films will feature, instead of all seven themed sessions.

There is something for everyone in our line-up, and I can't speak highly enough of the strong talent that is evident in the short filmmaking arena at present. We are pleased to feature several films this year that have already racked up awards at high profile film festivals like Toronto and Cannes. Not only are our filmmakers continuing to make striking and moving stories, they are excelling in this field and receiving recognition for their efforts both at home and abroad.

Don't miss your chance to see the films this year. Show Me Shorts is here for a good time, not a long time!

Wellington Paramount
Monday 14th November, 7:00pm

Book and buy tickets at regular session prices directly through the cinemas. Be in quick as seats are limited!

More presenters will be confirmed shortly. Visit www.showmeshorts.co.nz for updates; or for more information contact info@showmeshorts.co.nz

These events are proudly supported by the New Zealand Film Commission.

OPENING NIGHTS

This year we have two opening night events, which will be held at The Capitol in Auckland and The Paramount in Wellington.

The Auckland Opening Night and Awards Ceremony marks the official opening of the 2011 festival. Here, the winners in all eight prize categories will be announced for the first time and the winning films played. The award categories are:

- Kodak Best Film
- Screen Hub Best Student Film
- Panavision Best Cinematographer
- Script to Screen Best Screen Play
- SDGNZ Best Director
- SDGNZ Best Editor
- StarNow.com Best Actor
- Special Jury Prize

The Wellington Opening Night will screen the winning short films from all award categories.

Each of the opening night events will begin with complimentary drinks before the winning films are played. Festival organisers will attend, along with winning filmmakers and industry representatives.

OPENING NIGHT AND AWARDS CEREMONY - AUCKLAND 8:00PM, THURSDAY 3 NOVEMBER AT THE CAPITOL CINEMA.
